THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.Nos.29587 & 29590 of 1995

COMMON ORDER:

These two writ petitions are inter-connected filed by the very same person, therefore, they are being disposed of by this common order.

W.P.No.29587 of 1995 is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in not enhancing the salary of the petitioner on par with other administrative staff of the Pranganam as illegal, arbitrary and against the provisions of Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India.

W.P.No.29590 of 1995 is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the action of the respondents 1 and 2 in not regularizing the services of the petitioner as illegal, arbitrary and against the provisions of Articles 14, 16, 19 and 21 of the Constitution of India.

No counters are filed by the respondents.

The employer of the petitioner seems to be A.P. Women's Cooperative Finance Corporation Ltd., Vengal Rao Nagar, Ameerpet, Hyderabad. Prima facie, I am of the opinion that no writ petition lies under Article 226 of the Constitution of India against respondent No.1.

However, in view of passage of time for more than (11) years, I deem it appropriate to direct the first respondent to treat the very writ petitions as representations of the petitioner and consider the same and pass a detailed reasoned order as per law and communicate the same to the petitioner within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

The writ petitions are accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
